Sing the Mighty Power of God

PASTOR MIKE YODER • EXODUS 15:1-21

The Power of Song

Every believer should sing to the Lord, not because they have a good voice, but because of what God has done for them! Praise is the natural response from those who have experienced God's grace. That is what saved people do.

Tony Merida

Songs help us remember. Songs are portable theology. Everyone should sing from their heart to the Savior for the great deliverance they have received.

Tony Merida

True thoughts of God should inspire in us true expressions of the happiest, most joyous praise we can produce, which for most people is that of exuberant singing.

Douglas Stuart

Music is a gift from God that allows us to express our deepest heart responses to God and His truth in meaningful and memorable ways. It is a case of our hearts joining with our minds to say, “Yes! Yes! Yes!” to the truths we are embracing.

James Montgomery Boice

The Power of Moses' Song

Praise for What God Has Done (15:1–12)

When all goes well, we tend to forget Him; when nothing goes well, we tend to blame Him.

Praise for What God Will Do (15:13–17)

The theme of Exodus 15–40 is that God’s people are saved for a relationship with God. This transition in the song mirrors the transition in the book as a whole. We are saved so that we might enjoy the presence of God and dwell with Him.

Tim Chester

The Power of Moses' Song
Throughout the Bible

Psalm 77

Psalm 78

Psalm 105

Psalm 106

The experience of the Red Sea stands in the same relationship to their Passover redemption as the resurrection of Jesus does to His cross.

Let the message of Christ dwell among you richly as you teach and admonish one another with all wisdom through psalms, hymns, and songs from the Spirit, singing to God with gratitude in your hearts.

Colossians 3:16

Join the Hebrews 11 crowd, who lived by faith, and not the 1 Corinthians 10 crowd, who lived by fear.

*...and sang the song of God's servant Moses and of the Lamb:
"Great and marvelous are Your deeds, Lord God Almighty.
Just and true are Your ways, King of the nations."*

*“Who will not fear You, Lord, and bring glory to Your name?
For You alone are holy. All nations will come and worship before You, for your righteous acts have been revealed.”*

Revelation 15:4

Everyone who knows Jesus Christ will keep singing His praises until the end of the world. And then we will sing a new song. Whenever God does something great, He deserves to be praised. It will be a great day when Jesus comes again. As soon as we come to Christ, we join the chorus. Now, for the time being, we are still in rehearsal. We are preparing for the grand finale, when we will sing the everlasting song.

Philip Ryken

The kind of God we need is the kind of God Moses considered worthy of song. We need a God who will be with us always. We need a God who has the power to save us, to triumph over sin in our lives. We need a God of wrath, who will see to it that justice is done in the end. We need a God of everlasting love, who will take us home to live with Him forever. The God of Moses is everything that anyone could ever need or even want in a God.

Philip Ryken

WHO He is and WHAT He has done.
