The Gospel in theSpiritual MarketplacePASTOR MIKE YODER• ACTS 17:16-34

While Paul was waiting for them in Athens, he was greatly distressed to see that the city was full of idols.

those who happened to be there.

So he reasoned in the synagogue with both Jews and Godfearing Greeks, as well as in the marketplace day by day with

A group of Epicurean and Stoic philosophers began to debate with him. Some of them asked, "What is this babbler trying to say?"

about Jesus and the resurrection.

Others remarked, "He seems to be advocating foreign gods." They said this because Paul was preaching the good news

Then they took him and brought him to a meeting of the Areopagus, where they said to him, "May we know what this new teaching is that you are presenting?

You are bringing some strange ideas to our ears, and we would like to know what they mean."

Paul then stood up in the meeting of the Areopagus and said: "People of Athens! I see that in every way you are very religious.

For as I walked around and looked carefully at your objects of worship, I even found an altar with this inscription: TO AN UNKNOWN GOD. So you are ignorant of the very thing you worship—and this is what I am going to proclaim to you.

Relational Initiative (17:16–21)

Idolatry is the attempt either to localize God, confining Him within limits which we impose, or to domesticate God, making Him dependent on us, or to alienate God, blaming Him for His distance and His silence.

The highest witness incentive of all is zeal or jealousy for the glory of Jesus Christ.

When we get close to people, see their lives, and yearn for their salvation, we realize afresh how vital the Gospel is for their salvation and we experience afresh the power of energizing for witness by the Spirit.

Gospel Presentation

The further someone is from biblical Christianity, the more time we need to clarify the identity and character of God.

The central theme of Paul's address is that the one Creator God is real and true, unlike false idols, and that humans are responsible to Him as His offspring.

NIV Zondervan Study Bible

What put Christianity in the crosshairs of Caesar and the Roman authorities was this explosive combination of inclusivity and exclusivity — the little group of people who insisted on the exclusive claim...

that Jesus is the only way, not the idols of Rome, and also issued an inclusive call to everyone, regardless of ethnicity, to repent and believe and become part of a new worldwide family.

Trevin Wax

Why did all of this happen? Paul was connecting with people and talking about his faith. Then and now, evangelistic opportunities result.

Many people are rejecting our Gospel today not because they perceive it to be false, but because they perceive it to be trivial. People are looking for an integrated worldview which makes sense of all their experience.
