Women's Bible Study Thursdays, September 7–November 2 • 9:15 a.m. & 7:00 p.m. • Ministry Center • All women are invited to engage in a powerful study of the book of Ruth (by Kelly Minter). Explore with us Ruth's journey of unbearable loss, redeeming love, and divine legacy in this multi-generational group. To register by Sunday, September 3, visit GracePolaris.org/WBS or text "WBS" to 614-888-7733.

Communion Sunday, September 10 • 5:00 p.m. • We reaffirm our gratitude to Jesus and commitment to His family through threefold communion. All believers are welcome as we reflect and celebrate God's work on our behalf. Bring a side dish to share for the love feast; pulled pork will be provided as a main course. Ministry for children Birth–Kindergarten will be available after the love feast. Feel free to simply observe if you wish.

WITNESS

- Who are the people in your sphere of influence you're praying will come to know Jesus or are seeking to share the Gospel with?
- Share any progress/updates. Pray together for God to use you and your Grace Group to influence these people for Jesus.

EXPLORE

- 1 What resonated with you from the sermon?
- 2 What are practical ways that we can transfer the pattern of verse 2 into our own lives? What is the benefit of this kind of pattern?
- 3 What are ways we can elicit gladness and joy in our own lives like the psalmist talks about in verse 4? How do these emotions benefit our Christian faith?
- 4 What are some examples of God's great works and deep thoughts? How do these motivate you to praise God just like the psalmist does here?
- 5 Have you ever struggled with the reality that evildoers often flourish in this world? What does this passage teach and how does it help us come to grips with that reality?
- 6 According to verse 15, why does God make the righteous flourish? In what ways can we work toward that same purpose in our own life?

PRAY

Take some time to meditate on and thank God for His great works. Pray that the Lord would give you boldness and wisdom to declare those works to others so that He is glorified.
