HIGHLIGHT STORY

Jeff found that meeting new people is easy while walking with his new puppy. Just the other day, he met Rachel and David who live a half a block down his street. They have a two-year-old baby and the new puppy was a hit with all three.

CHALK TALK

Really getting to know someone requires listening. This week, we want to explore how the art of listening is critical to hearing another person's heart. If we are to share the Gospel with them, we need to understand where they are in life's journey. For many of us, this is a skill that requires some practice, so we encourage you to be open to what God shows you about your own listening.

IN THE HUDDLE

- What did you learn about yourself from the Listening quiz?
- Have you encountered a conversation where you didn't listen? How did it go?
- What phrases have you heard or used to be a good, reflective listener?

PLAY OF THE WEEK

5 Yard Play: Ask someone
"How are you really doing?"

EXPLORE

- 1 What was the result of the miracle in Acts 3:1-10? Why is it important that we recognize the result of the miracle as more significant than the miracle itself?
- 2 What is the significance of Peter referring to Old Testament individuals like Samuel, Moses, and Abraham?
- 3 How does it change our interactions with people when we realize the greatest blessing we can offer is the one that provides the power to turn people from their sin (AKA, the Gospel)?

PRAY

Thank and praise God for the miracle He worked in your life by raising you from death to life in salvation. Ask the Lord that He would refresh your amazement in that miracle daily and drive you to share it with others.
