Today's Sermon

A New Start

PASTOR MIKE YODER
2 CORINTHIANS 5:14-17

A NEW START

The Historical Claims of the Resurrection

You can become a _____ — the best version of your original design. (5:17)

You can live in a _____ — for the One who conquers death for all. (5:15)

You can see people with _____ — based upon how God sees them. (5:16)

The Personal Application of the Resurrection

God offers a _____ _____ to those who are in Christ.

DIG DEEPER

2 Corinthians 5:17 says that anyone who is in Christ is a new creation. How would you summarize what it means to be "in Christ?" How does that happen?

The Apostle Paul said, "I have been crucified with Christ and I no longer live, but Christ lives in me" (Galatians 2:20). What does "I no longer live" mean?

The new creation empowers us to be like Jesus and to see like Him. What individuals or group(s) of people ought you to view differently if you know Christ? In what way(s) should you view them differently?

A NEW START

This is your new start.

All around we see reminders that we live in a broken world. Disease blankets the globe. Prosperity turns to ash. Never-ending conflicts persist. A new and better future seems like a pipe dream...

Except it isn't!

The life, death, and resurrection of Jesus Christ changed reality. The vital intervention has occurred. And now, something new is not only possible; it's available to each one of us! Explore what this brand new reality looks like, and how you can experience it. And see how events from two thousand years ago can turn this year — and the rest of your life — into a new start.
