Today's Sermon

Living with Integrity
PASTOR JONATHAN WILEY
JAMES 1:19-27

JAMES FAITH / WORKS

_____ the Word _____ (1:19-21)

_____ the Word _____ (1:22-25)

_____ the Word _____ (1:26,27)

To live with integrity, be a _____ and a _____ of the Word.

Do not merely listen to the Word, and so deceive yourselves. Do what it says. James 1:22

DIG DEEPER

James commands believers to be quick to listen, slow to speak, and slow to become angry (1:19). What are some examples where you've seen this wisdom ignored or embraced? What does it reveal about our hearts when we don't heed James' instruction?

How does a Christian "humbly accept the Word" planted in them (1:21)? Why do you think so many professing believers struggle to spend time in God's Word? Why is being a "doer" of the Word and not a "hearer only" so important (1:22)?

What is meant, culturally, by "being religious," and how does James describe it (1:26,27)? In what ways should Christians be religious? How can you better control your tongue, care for those in need, and cultivate a pure heart?
