Today's Sermon

What The Gospel Makes Possible

PASTOR MIKE YODER

I. Profiling the Authors

II. Highlighting Key Themes

III. Investigating the Context

The character of the city

The beginnings of the church (Acts 16)

IV. Getting Acquainted with the Church

Causes for Commendation

Cautions and Corrections

V. Recognizing the Director

Amidst suffering and opposition, look at the spiritual family Christ can create!

DIG DEEPER

What theme in Philippians is particularly compelling to you, or needed in your life, in this moment? Why?

Acts 16 reveals the diverse kinds of people in Philippi who are reached by the Gospel. How does that inspire you?

Jesus Christ is the ultimate and only lasting unifier of people. How should that affect our witness and ministries at Grace?

The Training Program

Beginning Next Sunday at 9:00 a.m. in MC 3

Join Pastor Zac for this eight-month training program to develop a deeper knowledge of the Bible and God's mission for believers. This robust yet accessible training program will consist of three courses: The Message of the Bible (September 12–November 14), Evangelical Beliefs (January 9–March 13), and The Church & Christian Mission (April 10–May 22). Registration is $60 and covers the course materials, visits from guest teachers, and more. Several books will be covered in the program and must be purchased separately. To learn more and register by September 7, visit GracePolaris.org/Training or text "Training" to 614-888-7733.
