DIG DEEPER

Conversion = repentance + faith. We see these key themes in Peter's explanation — conversion (3:19), repentance (3:19), and faith (3:16). How does this help clarify the essence of saving faith?

What bothered the Jewish leaders most was the teaching about a resurrected Jesus (Acts 4:2). Why was the resurrection so disturbing to them?

The "mark" (presence, power) of Jesus is the most compelling explanation of a changed life. What does this tell us about the relative importance of Bible knowledge, verbal eloquence, an outgoing personality, and societal status in terms of evangelistic effectiveness?
