DIG DEEPER

Every effective witness to Christ learns how to build bridges in conversation, whatever the context. What patterns do you notice about Paul's "bridge building" example (17:22-24)?

Paul says that God moves so that people would "seek him and perhaps reach out for him" (17:27). What does Paul mean here? Are there people who seek for and reach out to God? Explain.

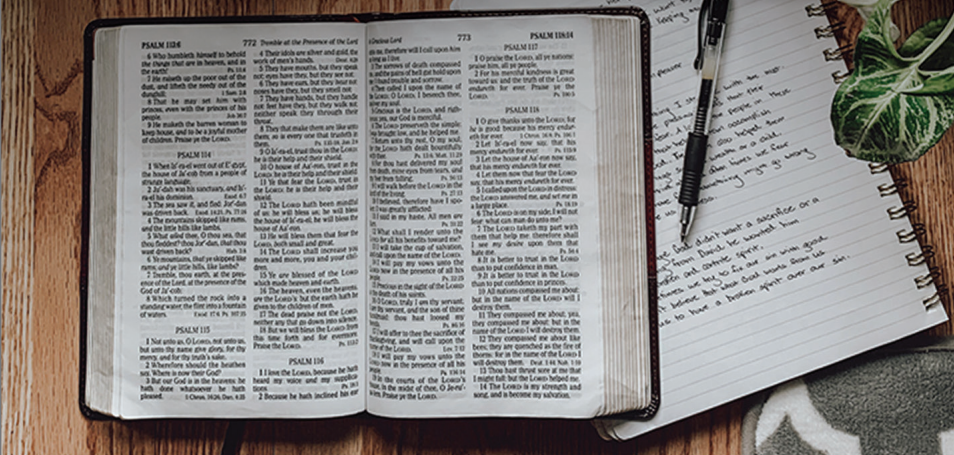

What details or topics are you surprised that Paul emphasized or omitted in his Gospel summary (17:24-31)? What is fascinating about the diverse response to Paul's Gospel summary (17:32-34)?
