Today's Sermon

Visit GracePolaris.org/Sermons to play messages, view study guides, and subscribe to the podcast.

Historical Background: Pride goes before the fall.

Divine Announcement: Be sure your sins will find you out.

Nahum and Jonah: The Lord is slow to anger and abounding in love.

Contemporary Application: Expect Judgment, Embrace Mercy.

The nations experience the _____ and the _____ of God. Which does your heart and your feet _____?

DIG DEEPER

It's easy to think that God is absent and "asleep at the wheel" of history. How does Nahum remind us of the active providence of God? How should this influence our perspective on current events?

How do you reconcile the biblical teaching that God is slow to anger yet vengeful, wrathful yet a refuge? How does this display the Gospel message?

How should one's own reception of divine mercy influence how we approach others with the character and plans of God?

Welcome to Grace
