DIG DEEPER

How would you describe the present climate of American society — our discourse, our fears, our tensions?

Believers are called to be in the world and not of it. (John 17:14-17) How should believers be noticeably “not of the world” specifically in our current political climate? Be specific.

“We are Americans best when we are not Americans first” (Russell Moore). What do you think this means? Do you agree?
