DIG DEEPER

Many people assume that God's plans are confining. In this passage, what do you find liberating about God's plan for relationships in the Christian household?

In our human nature, we are quick to highlight the responsibilities or deficiencies of others while ignoring our own. How can you focus on God's directives to you in this passage?

In your own words, how do the Gospel and the Spirit affect how we hear and apply these directives?

Welcome to Grace
