DIG DEEPER

What does the diverse nature of the women in Luke 8:2,3 tell us about the Kingdom of God? What does it tell us about who is welcome and who can participate in it?

Even as those who have received the Word of God, what does this parable teach us about our ongoing faith? What role does fruit play in our faith?

What are ways you can apply this passage specifically in your Gospel witness? How does this parable encourage your boldness in speaking the Gospel?
