Today's Sermon

It is _____ to praise the Lord. (92:1-5)

It is _____ not to praise the Lord. (92:6-11)

It is _____ to praise the Lord. (92:12-15)

DIG DEEPER

What are practical ways that we can transfer the pattern of verse 2 into our own lives? What is the benefit of this kind of pattern?

What are some examples of God's great works and deep thoughts? How do these motivate you to praise God just like the psalmist does here?

According to verse 15, why does God make the righteous flourish? In what ways can we work toward that same purpose in our own life?

Welcome to Grace
