

The Greatest Tragedy

PASTOR DAVE NICODEMUS • LUKE 13:1–9

The Journey
with Jesus

There were some present at that very time who told Him about the Galileans whose blood Pilate had mingled with their sacrifices.

And He answered them, “Do you think that these Galileans were worse sinners than all the other Galileans, because they suffered in this way?

No, I tell you; but unless you repent, you will all likewise perish.

Or those eighteen on whom the tower in Siloam fell and killed them: do you think that they were worse offenders than all the others who lived in Jerusalem?

No, I tell you; but unless you repent, you will all likewise perish.”

And He told this parable: “A man had a fig tree planted in his vineyard, and he came seeking fruit on it and found none.

And he said to the vinedresser, 'Look, for three years now I have come seeking fruit on this fig tree, and I find none. Cut it down. Why should it use up the ground?'

And he answered him, 'Sir, let it alone this year also, until I dig around it and put on manure.'

Then if it should bear fruit next year, well and good; but if not, you can cut it down.””

Unless you repent, you will
all likewise perish. (13:1–3)

Unless you repent, you will
all likewise perish. (13:4,5)

There's still time to repent, so you likewise will not perish. (13:6–9)
