A Surprising Conversion

PASTOR ZAC HESS • ACTS 9:1-31

SAVED & SENT
A SERIES IN ACTS

An aerial photograph of a dry, hilly landscape. A winding dirt road or path cuts through the terrain. In the distance, a small figure of a person is visible on the path. The overall tone is brown and arid.

Beholding the resurrected Christ changes the most unlikely converts.

A landscape painting showing a wide, open valley with a winding dirt path. The terrain is hilly and covered in sparse, dry vegetation. In the distance, a small figure is visible on the path. The overall color palette is warm and earthy, with shades of brown, tan, and muted green. The sky is a pale, hazy blue.

Saul's background demonstrates he is an unlikely convert. (9:1,2)

But Saul, still breathing threats and murder against the disciples of the Lord, went to the high priest and asked him for letters to the synagogues at Damascus, so that if he found any belonging to the Way, men or women, he might bring them bound to Jerusalem.

Acts 9:1

Acts 9:2

Saul's conversion shows the resurrection changes
everything. (9:3–19)

Now as he went on his way, he approached Damascus, and suddenly a light from heaven shone around him.

Acts 9:3

And falling to the ground, he heard a voice saying to him, “Saul, Saul, why are you persecuting Me?”

Acts 9:4

And he said, “Who are you, Lord?” And He said, “I am Jesus, whom you are persecuting.”

Acts 9:5

But rise and enter the city, and you will be told what you are to do.”

Acts 9:6

The men who were traveling with him stood speechless, hearing the voice but seeing no one.

Acts 9:7

A landscape photograph showing a dirt road winding through a hilly, arid region. The hills are covered in dry, brownish vegetation. The sky is a pale, hazy yellow, suggesting a bright but overcast day. The overall tone is warm and somewhat desaturated.

Saul rose from the ground, and although his eyes were opened, he saw nothing. So they led him by the hand and brought him into Damascus.

Acts 9:8

And for three days he was without sight, and neither ate nor drank.

Acts 9:9

Now there was a disciple at Damascus named Ananias. The Lord said to him in a vision, "Ananias." And he said, "Here I am, Lord."

Acts 9:10

And the Lord said to him, “Rise and go to the street called Straight, and at the house of Judas look for a man of Tarsus named Saul, for behold, he is praying,

Acts 9:11

and he has seen in a vision a man named Ananias come in and lay his hands on him so that he might regain his sight.”

Acts 9:12

But Ananias answered, “Lord, I have heard from many about this man, how much evil he has done to Your saints at Jerusalem.

Acts 9:13

And here he has authority from the chief priests to bind all who call on Your name.”

Acts 9:14

But the Lord said to him, “Go, for he is a chosen instrument of Mine to carry My name before the Gentiles and kings and the children of Israel.

Acts 9:15

For I will show him how much he must suffer for the sake of My name.”

Acts 9:16

So Ananias departed and entered the house. And laying his hands on him he said, "Brother Saul, the Lord Jesus who appeared to you on the road by which you came

Acts 9:17

has sent me so that you may regain your sight and be filled with the Holy Spirit.”

Acts 9:17

A landscape painting of a dry, hilly region. In the foreground, there is a small, shallow pond with ripples on its surface. The hills are covered in sparse, dry vegetation. The sky is a pale, hazy blue. The overall color palette is warm and earthy, dominated by browns, tans, and muted blues.

And immediately something like scales fell from his eyes, and he regained his sight. Then he rose and was baptized;

Acts 9:18

and taking food, he was strengthened. For some days he was with the disciples at Damascus.

Acts 9:19

A landscape painting showing a wide, open valley with a winding path or road. The terrain is hilly and covered in sparse, dry-looking vegetation. In the distance, a small figure is visible on the path. The overall color palette is warm and earthy, with shades of brown, tan, and muted green. The sky is a soft, pale yellow, suggesting a bright, clear day.

Saul's transformation proves his conversion was genuine. (9:20–31)

And immediately he proclaimed Jesus in the synagogues, saying, “He is the Son of God.”

Acts 9:20

And all who heard him were amazed and said, “Is not this the man who made havoc in Jerusalem of those who called upon this name? And has he not come here for this purpose, to bring them bound before the chief priests?”

Acts 9:21

But Saul increased all the more in strength, and confounded the Jews who lived in Damascus by proving that Jesus was the Christ.

Acts 9:22

When many days had passed, the Jews plotted to kill him,

Acts 9:23

but their plot became known to Saul. They were watching the gates day and night in order to kill him,

Acts 9:24

but his disciples took him by night and let him down through an opening in the wall, lowering him in a basket.

Acts 9:25

And when he had come to Jerusalem, he attempted to join the disciples. And they were all afraid of him, for they did not believe that he was a disciple.

Acts 9:26

But Barnabas took him and brought him to the apostles and declared to them how on the road he had seen the Lord, Who spoke to him, and how at Damascus he had preached boldly in the name of Jesus.

Acts 9:27

So he went in and out among them at Jerusalem, preaching boldly in the name of the Lord.

Acts 9:28

*And he spoke and disputed against the Hellenists.
But they were seeking to kill him.*

Acts 9:29

And when the brothers learned this, they brought him down to Caesarea and sent him off to Tarsus.

Acts 9:30

So the church throughout all Judea and Galilee and Samaria had peace and was being built up. And walking in the fear of the Lord and in the comfort of the Holy Spirit, it multiplied.

Acts 9:31

An aerial photograph of a dry, hilly landscape. A winding dirt road or path cuts through the terrain. In the distance, a small figure of a person is visible on the path. The overall tone is brown and arid.
